

Counselling

Volunteer Role Description

Purpose	To provide one to one counselling to people living with HIV This role is only open to people who hold a Diploma in Counselling
Work Area	Supporting People
Key Activities	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> As a Counselling Volunteer you will be providing one to one counselling sessions to people living with HIV at George House Trust. The Counselling Service is highly valued by our service users and you'll be helping people to live happy and confident lives with HIV
Time Commitment	At least 2 hours per week plus a commitment to attend regular group supervision. Appointments will take place on weekdays day times or Monday evenings
Location	This role is based in the office at George House Trust
Skills/experience required	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> A British Association of Counselling and Psychotherapy accredited qualification Commitment to receiving regular external supervision Commitment to continuing professional development Ability to be accountable to George House Trust staff
Training required	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> George House Trust Volunteer Induction A commitment to complete one update training session per year A commitment to attend regular volunteer team meetings
DBS required?	An Enhanced DBS Check is required for this role.
Supervision arrangements	Supervision will be provided by: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> A George House Trust Service Adviser External supervision (paid for by George House Trust) Group supervision

Volunteer Role Description

	One to one volunteer supervision is available from the Volunteer Co-ordinator is also available on request.
Further Information	For further information, or to get involved email martin@ght.org.uk

