

GEORGE
HOUSE± TRUST
HIV POSITIVE LIVING

Positively Speaking

Volunteer Role Description

Purpose	To raise awareness of the facts about HIV, the experiences of people living with HIV and to challenge stigma through sharing your personal experience in a range of settings.
Work Area	Public facing & Raising HIV Awareness
Key Activities	As an HIV Awareness Training Volunteer you'll play a key role in challenging HIV stigma and sharing factual information about HIV. You'll have access to public speaking skills training and will also gain experience of telling people about your experiences to a wide range of audiences. Key tasks include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Telling your personal story in a range of settings ▪ Answering basic questions about HIV and the work of George House Trust ▪ Other activities, as agreed by George House Trust staff
Time Commitment	This role is very flexible and can work around your commitments.
Location	This activity is all about getting information about HIV out into the community. Volunteering could take place anywhere in Greater Manchester.
Skills/experience required	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Able to deliver key messages about George House Trust and HIV ▪ Able to represent George House Trust in a range of settings ▪ Be punctual and reliable ▪ Be self-aware and reflective ▪ Good communication and interpersonal skills
Training required	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Positively Speaking – HIV Awareness Training Induction
DBS required?	No
Supervision arrangements	Supervision is provided by George House Trust's Positive Speaker Development Worker
Further Information	For further information, or to get involved email volunteering@ght.org.uk

